THE FERGUS

2515 Square Feet

» The Fergus leaves a lasting first impression – from the distance it appears as a sprawling French Country bungalow, but upon closer approach reveals itself as an “L” shaped elevation with a sweeping circular forecourt. Both the home’s sophisticated façade and the carriage-trade garage wing share fine materials such as rustic tumbled stone, arched brick entries, and heritage shingles. There are a variety of beautiful windows such as the elegant box bay with its copper flashing.
